SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- 1. During December 1948 the USSR sent two or possibly three groups of schnorkel-equipped submarines into the Atlantic Ocean for training and maneuvers. Each group was composed of three submarines.
- 2. The vessels departed from Kronstadt individually. One group was destined for operations in the vicinity of the Canary Islands.
- 3. A Polish naval officer recently returned to Gdynia from Kronstadt, where he underwent training in the use of schnorkel equipment. He is now to serve as an instructor in the Polish Navy.
